Steel Firm May Ask Railroad
To Take Over Business
Halted by Walkout

By The Associated Press
YOUNGSTOWN, O., Aug. 18.— First steps toward settlement of the truck drivers strike which has halted hauling to and from steel and railway terminals here were taken today as representatives of both sides accepted an offer of mediation made by Sheriff Ralph Elser of Mahoning county.

Three representatives of the union and three of the operators agreed to meet this afternoon with Elser presiding.

Representatives of the operators were expected to be here at an earlier meeting of operators called by James B. McManis, traffic manager of the Chamber of Commerce.

Department store orders of heavy shipments of canned goods and other business supplies were undelivered as all motor freight firms in the city except one said they had suspended operations in a strike called last week by Local 3 of the Truckers and Truck Drivers union.

J. C. Arkesinger, chief of the Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co. said if necessary the concern would ask railroads to deliver limestone and coal supplies over private sidings into company properties.

Al McCullough, president of the McCullough Transfer Co. which hauls supplies to Youngstown Sheet & Tube said his concern is operating 100 per cent and applied to city officials for police protection to continue operation.

Mayor Chief Confer

Mayor Daniel Evans and Police Chief Carl Olsen conferred on Mc-Cullough's request. Other motor freight firms representative said deliveries had been suspended although local carage concerns continued to pick up household goods but nothing from motor or railroad terminals.

The union had warned that no minute police use force or interference with non-violent and legal conduct of the strike. All truck drivers are including those making more and newspaper deliveries would be asked to strike. Such authorities was voted Sunday by the union.

The strike demand a closed shop high wage and shorter hours.

PRICE OF ALL GROCERIES
EXPECTED TO INCREASE

Milk, Butter and Eggs Already Affected by Drouth and Meats
Will Climb Before Long

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—Increases in the price of food items are long before the housewife in out from $11 to $12 for the same basket of food she now buys for a ten dollar bill.

Government and private experts admitting that exact estimates are impossible nevertheless forecast an average increase of the final grocery budgets.

They explained that when the scorching sun shriveled crops in recent months the dollars food purchasing power went into a dip it already has affected milk butter and eggs in some places and eventually will reach meats they said.

The experts said their best guesses were based upon what happened after the drouth two years ago.

Consumer purchasing power which was on the upgrade after the 1934 drouth has been hit by a 100 per cent increase in the price of food items.

An intricate check upon average food costs kept by the bureau of labor statistics with the price from 1914 to 1934 placed at 100 the bureau reported the food cost at the start of the 1934 drouth to a peak of 122 in 1935 or about 22 per cent.

The last retail food index in July was 94. This increase in food costs because of the present drouth may go much higher than the peak which came after the drouth of 1934 it was said.

Meat prices may dip slightly for a few months and then soar upward next spring and summer according to a Baltimore economist at the agriculture department who has been following meat trends for 35 years.

The drouth directly has caused prices of milk, butter and dairy items upward in some places according to consumers council of AAA.

White bread prices have remained about the same in recent weeks the consumer group said Secretary Elser said recently that even the short wheat crop was ample for milling flour and other domestic needs.

Egg prices moved upward after the 1934 drouth because the high cost and shortage of feed caused marketing of poultry. The numbers of poultry this year are reported larger than last.

Supplies of canned vegetables and fruits will not be seriously affected by the drouth officials of the National Association of Canners reported.

The fruit supply was said to have been less affected than vegetable, except for red sour cherries.

German's Aid Says It's All

By The Associated Press
NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—Joe Gould, manager of heavyweight champion James J. Braddock announced today the scheduled fight between Braddock and Max Schmeling is definitely off.

Gould said Braddock will enter the New York hospital Thursday to have an operation performed on his left hand by Dr. Irvin Leland.

The fight is off for this year.
Gould said. I can't let Jim fight with a bad hand. At least five doctors advised us that it would be unwise for him to do any boxing for at least three months.

Could and Braddock were scheduled to appear this afternoon in the New York state supreme court to argue the case of Schmeling's right to a non-payment of prize money.
The German conqueror of Joe Louis next month.

I don't care what the commissioner rules, said Gould. The fight is off for us as we are concerned.

Joe Jacobs, manager of Schmeling said the whole thing is news to us.

We are going down to the commissioner's meeting to find out what he has to say. We are not leaving until we know what he has to say.

Why only yesterday I completed arrangements for Schmeling to train at Speculator, N.Y.

Earlier today promoter Mike Jacobs said that he would be seriously interested in matching Schmeling against the winner of tonight's bout between Louis and Jack Sharkey in the event the Braddock-Schmeling fight is called off.

We stand for nothing, of the kind, said Joe Jacobs. Schmeling earned a crack at the title when he knocked out Louis two months ago. We are going to fight Braddock for the crown—no substitutes for us.

THE WORLD WITH A FENCE

A New Novel by Marian Sims

"You may want to wring my neck," said Blake.

Twenty-two years ago, when she was a girl, she had a very special friend. He was a boy, and he was named Blake. They were both very close, and they had a lot of fun together. But then, one day, Blake disappeared. She never saw him again, and she never knew what happened to him.

Now, twenty-two years later, she was sitting on a bench in a garden, looking at a man who was standing in front of her. He was a young man, and he was looking at her with a strange expression. She felt a little nervous, but she didn't say anything.

"You may want to wring my neck," said Blake. She looked at him for a moment, and then she laughed. "What is that?" she asked. "It's just a joke," he said. "I'm just kidding you."

She looked at him for a moment, and then she laughed. "What is that?" she asked. "It's just a joke," he said. "I'm just kidding you."

She looked at him for a moment, and then she laughed. "What is that?" she asked. "It's just a joke," he said. "I'm just kidding you."

unless she was given a cue to talk, but her whole attitude radiated a hopeful happiness far removed from the very real terror which had gripped her the day before.

"Set down," Samuel Brixton said, bringing forward chairs and seating himself again at his desk. But then, all at once, his bravado fell from him and he looked at us with stark fright.

"Everything's all right," Dicky said explosively. "We've managed to get it. Mrs. Graham and I have three days you'll receive notice from a New York bank to come down and get twenty-five thousand dollars. Here, somebody!"

For Brixton had fallen forward in his chair, either in a swoon or in a momentary collapse of nerves. Dicky dashed to his side, turned Brixton's head and looked at him searchingly. Miss Marshall had rushed to the door, and called, "Jerry, quick!" even as she filled a glass from the container of ice water near the door.

A Tense Moment
"He hasn't gone off entirely," Dicky said reassuringly as Miss Marshall, silent, but with tear-filled eyes, came up with the glass of water. As he spoke, he shifted Brixton's position so the man's head, instead of resting on the desk, was pillowed against Dicky's shoulder.

"Hold the water in his lips, Miss Marshall, but don't try to force it on him," he said, and Miss Marshall obeyed him mutely while Jerry and I, unneeded to help, not daring to breathe, looked on anxiously.

"There! He's coming out of it!" Dicky said a minute later, and at the same instant, Samuel Brixton's hand grasped for the water glass. Miss Marshall set it in his lips, and he drank, not deeply, but with evident relief.

"I'm all right, now," he said, straightening up, and Dicky took his protecting arm away.

"I don't know what possessed me," he said, looking around at us with a shamefaced smile. "I assure you I don't throw fits like that as a usual thing. I didn't go completely out, you know. I knew what you were saying and doing, but I just couldn't pull myself together to speak or move."

"I know, old man," Dicky said, and his voice was as sympathetic as if the man before him were one of his own dear friends, instead of being someone he despised. But my husband's heart, I am proud and glad to say, is as soft as the proverbial butter when there is need for sympathy.

"The reaction was too much for you," Dicky went on in matter-of-fact tones, patently giving Brixton a chance to pull himself together. "But you'll be all right in a few moments, and I'm sure you'll be able to come through with flying colors once you get your hands on that money. You haven't many superiors in the financial game."

"I used to think so," Samuel Brixton replied. "But I've had that particularly conceit knocked out of me in the last year."

"Get it back!" Dicky admonished. "Get it back!"

Why put up with PIMPLES, WRINKLES AND A SALLOW SKIN?

So many women throw their charm and beauty away—look years older than they are—because they neglect common constipation. They forget that badly balanced meals, over a period of years, can change how they look and feel.

Often their menus lack the "bulk" needed for regular habits. Then constipation, the beauty-killer, sets in. Other effects may be headache, listlessness, sleeplessness.

Get "bulk" back into your meals with a delicious cereal: Kellogg's All-Bran. It absorbs moisture within the body, forms a soft mass, gently cleanses the system.

Just eat two tablespoons daily, either as a cereal or in cooked dishes. All-Bran is guaranteed. Try it a week. If not satisfactory, your money will be refunded by the Kellogg Company. Sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Brixton Swears As Dicky Informs Him That Arrangements Are Made For Loan.

AS Jerry went into Brixton's private office, leaving us alone for a minute, Dicky slipped swiftly and whispered:

"Don't look surprised or balk at anything I say. I'm going to make Brixton believe that I'm in this. I'm not anxious to grab a halo that doesn't belong to me, but I think it's better for him to think I've shared this. Don't you?"

"Oh, Dicky you darling!" I had no time for any further answer, because Samuel Brixton had flung open the door of his inner office and was advancing toward us with outstretched hands.

"Come in," he boomed. "I didn't hope to see you in person. But I'm sure glad you're here."

Brixton is jubilant. I would hardly have known him for the same harried, desperate man I had encountered at the garage the day before. This was the old Samuel Brixton, jolly, confident, shrewd, ready to trust the world as an especially succulent oyster for his opinions.

Behind him, seated at her desk, Miss Marshall looked up with glowing eyes. She was now a secretary, too efficient, too familiar with the behavior required of her, to make any oral comment.

A Little Thought Now-

Only a few more weeks until chilly weather—then winter in earnest. Wouldn't you like to be completely rid of worrisome heating problems this winter, yet enjoy uniform, healthful temperatures in your home no matter what the weather is outside? You can—by installing automatic gas heat now.

Discuss gas heat for your home now with a heating engineer from The Gas Company. He'll show you how impressively you can convert your present furnace or boiler into a modern gas-fired heating plant. He'll estimate the cost of heating your home with gas—and you'll be pleasantly surprised. This low heating survey costs no obligation.

KENTON, O., Aug. 15. — H. H. Mima, 46, of M'Guffey, was given a fair chance for recovery today from effects of an accident Sunday, near Parkersburg, Ohio, and dislocated his left arm at the elbow, resulting in a compound fracture of the right leg and fractured three ribs.

William Sparks, 50, driver of the car that went out of control, sustained minor injuries as did Orville Cooker, 22, and S. Smith, 27, all of M'Guffey. They were returning home from Kenton.

COURT BLOCKS MEMORIAL JOB

Injunction Bars Work on Thomas Jefferson Project in St. Louis.

(Copyright, 1936 Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Aug. 15. — The District of Columbia court of appeals yesterday granted a temporary injunction against the government, blocking any steps toward the development of the Thomas Jefferson memorial in St. Louis, pending arguments on the validity of the 1925 relief act under which President Roosevelt authorized $250,000 for the memorial.

Edmund M. Tamm, Washington counsel for 25 residents of St. Louis opposing the memorial, was notified that the court also had granted a special appeal from the ruling by Justice Joseph W. Cox on June 24 that the government was "clearly within its power" in proceeding with the project.

With arguments in the case expected late this year or early next, the order stipulated that the status quo be preserved meanwhile. Justice Cox, in denying an injunction had pointed to the power of the government for preservation of historic sites, and said the complainants did not show the project would cause them serious loss. He also expressed doubt about the right of the suit to be entertained since the government had not consented to being sued.

David H. Robertson of St. Louis and Toland argued that the relief act represented an unconstitutional delegation of power by congress, and that another decision by the appeals court here had invalidated the entire law. Issue was taken on behalf of the government by F. F. Boyd and Alger Hiss of Washington.

The President made the relief allotment in question early last winter. The city of St. Louis put up an additional $250,000.

The site desired for the memorial, at the place where Lewis and Clark prepared for their trip of discovery and exploration, and as "the place where the Santa Fe and the Oregon and other trails originated."

DEFENDANT APPEALS IN HEART BALM SUIT. O. C. Schlienz Asks Third District Tribunal for Reversal of Verdict.

Otto C. Schlienz, 50, Marion, building supply dealer, today had entered the Third district court of appeals in an effort to have a $2,500 common pleas jury verdict in a breach of promise suit brought against him by Miss Leona Fryman, 26, of near Richwood, set aside.

The appeal was filed late yesterday by his attorney, J. C. A. Arter. The action came after Judge Hecker S. Young overruled his motion for a new trial Aug. 8 in common pleas court.

Arter has carried the verdict to the higher court on "fact and law, claiming the judgment of $2,500 is excessive and that it is contrary to the weight of the evidence presented in the two-day trial early in April.

A jury of seven women and five men awarded Miss Fryman a verdict of $2,500 on April 8. She had sought $10,000. She was represented by Homer E. Johnson.

Miss Fryman charges Mr. Schlienz started going with her in October of 1929 and that they became engaged in the following November. She contends the marriage was delayed five times at the request of Mr. Schlienz and that finally he told her on Dec. 5, 1933, he would never marry her.

Mr. Schlienz has said he never proposed marriage and that there was no agreement for marriage. He had repeatedly told Miss Fryman, he said, that he could not marry her.

COED MURDER TRIAL STARTS TOMORROW. Negro Who Admits Killing Girl in Carolina Hotel Indicted by Grand Jury.

By The Associated Press. ASHEVILLE, N. C., Aug. 15. — Martin Moore, a gangling Negro youth, will go on trial for his life tomorrow, charged with the hotel room slaying of Helen Cleaver, a month ago.

The Negro, former hall boy at the fashionable Battery Park hotel where the 19-year-old blond New York university honor student was vacationing, was indicted yesterday on a first degree murder count, and a few hours later, at his arraignment, pleaded innocent.

Solicitor Zeb V. Kettles, chief prosecutor, said the state would use about 20 witnesses.

The defense has not disclosed any plans. Court-appointed lawyers had Moore examined by specialists last week, but did not disclose the findings.

Moore was arraigned only on a murder charge, although the grand jury indicted him also for first degree burglary. The latter also is a capital offense in North Carolina.

Shirley Lawrence E. Brown, who arrested the 19-year-old hotel employee, said Moore confessed going to the girl's room to look it.
